Support in College

If you are worried, or if you are struggling, please talk to a member of staff, so that we can help support you.

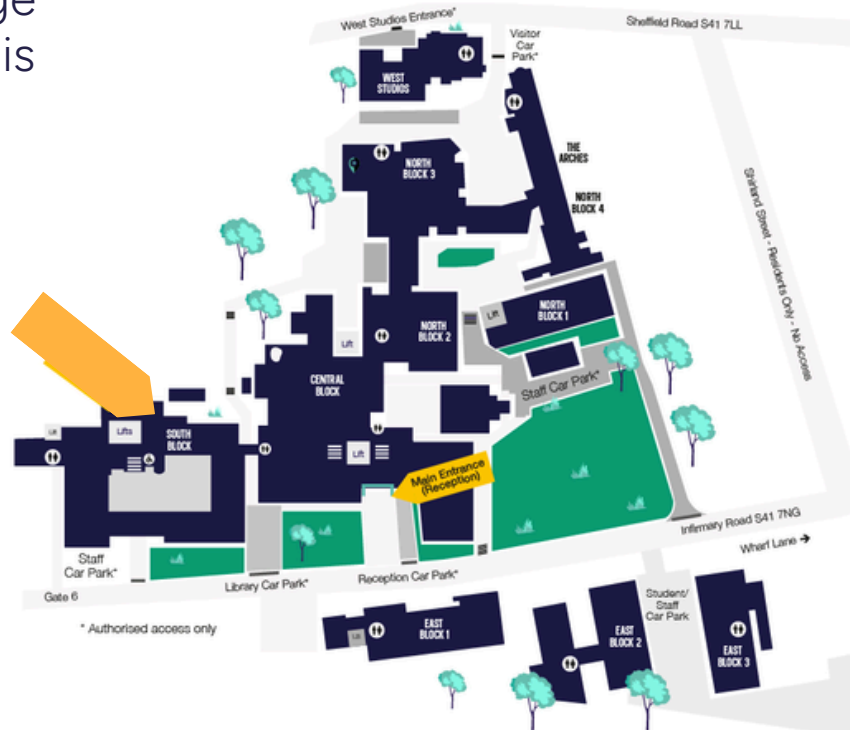

Your tutor is your main contact for help and support in college. You can also talk to Anna Taylor, who can help with problems outside lessons, especially relating to mental health and wellbeing.

- Please remember to wear your college ID badge and lanyard at all times. If you lose this, you will need to get a new one from Enrolment, on the ground floor of South Block, near the lifts.
- If you would like to talk to Anna, please contact her on taylorak@chesterfield.ac.uk, or message her on Teams, at Anna Taylor. Her office is in West Block, W139.

If you need a quiet, safe space to sit and be calm, you can go to the Wellbeing Hub during college open times. The Wellbeing Hub is by the lifts in South Block. You will find the Safeguarding Team here as well. If you have any concerns about your safety or the safety of others, you can come HERE and talk to us.

Contact us on:

Sexual misconduct refers to any unwelcome behaviour of a sexual nature that violates personal boundaries, dignity, or consent. It is a broad term that encompasses a range of actions, including sexual harassment, assault, and rape. It may also involve other unwanted behaviours such as inappropriate touching, indecent exposure, stalking, and intimidation. In essence, it includes any conduct of a sexual nature that is non-consensual, harmful, and disrespectful of individual autonomy, including distributing private and personal explicit images or video footage of an individual without their consent. Examples of sexual misconduct include:

Sexual Harassment	Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, and other verbal or physical harassment of a sexual nature.
Sexual Assault	Any sexual act committed without consent, including rape, forced touching, or other sexual acts.
Rape	Sexual intercourse without consent.
Unwanted Touching	Touching someone sexually without their consent, including pinching, embracing, or groping.
Stalking	Repeatedly following, harassing, or threatening someone, often with sexual intent.
Exposure	Inappropriately exposing one's genitals or other private parts to others.
Intimidation	Using force or coercion to pressure someone into unwanted sexual activity.
