What is Safeguarding?

Safeguarding Children 16-18yrs

Protecting children from abuse and maltreatment preventing harm to children's health or development ensuring children grow up with the provision of safe and effective care taking action to enable all children and young people to have the best outcomes.

Safeguarding Adults

The Department of Health defines a vulnerable adult as someone who has needs for care and support (whether or not the local authority is meeting any of those needs), and as a result of those needs is unable to protect themselves from either the risk of, or the experience of abuse or neglect.

Abuse may be of a sexual, physical or emotional nature. It may also be caused by the neglect of a child or young person's basic physical or psychological needs.

If you are, or suspect a child may be, at immediate risk you should call 999.

Physical Abuse - may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child.

Emotional Abuse - is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child causing severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve making a child feel that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person.

Neglect - is the ongoing failure to meet a child's basic needs and the most common form of child abuse. A child might be left hungry, dirty, or without proper clothing, shelter, supervision or health care. This can put children and young people in danger. It can also have long term effects on their physical and mental wellbeing.

Sexual Abuse - is forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, not necessarily involving a high level of violence, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening.

Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE) - involves a young person being drawn into a form of modern slavery with victims being forced to work under the control of highly organised criminals in activities such as forced begging, shoplifting and pickpocketing, cannabis cultivation, drug dealing and financial exploitation.

Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE) - is a type of sexual abuse. When a child or young person is exploited they're given things, like gifts, drugs, money, status and affection, in exchange for performing sexual activities.

County Lines - refers to illegal drugs being transported from one area to another, usually by children or vulnerable people who are coerced into it by gangs.

Grooming - is when someone builds a relationship, trust and emotional connection with a child or young person so they can manipulate, exploit and abuse them.

FGM - procedures, usually on young girls, involving partial or total removal of the external female genital organs or any other injury to the female genital organs for non-medical reasons.

Modern Slavery - is the recruitment, movement, harbouring or receiving of children, women or men through the use of force, coercion, abuse of vulnerability, deception or other means for the purpose of exploitation.

Honour-based Violence - is a crime or incident committed to protect or defend the 'honour' of a family or community.

Forced Marriage - a marriage conducted without the valid consent of one or both parties and where duress is a factor.

Domestic Violence - an incident or pattern of incidents of controlling, coercive, threatening, degrading and violent behaviour, including sexual violence by anyone they have an intimate relation with including a parent, partner, friend or other family member.

Sexual Harassment - refers to unwanted behaviour of a sexual nature which violates dignity, makes the person feel intimidated, degraded or humiliated and creates a hostile or offensive environment.

PREVENT Duty

The PREVENT Duty is the duty in the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 on specified authorities, in the exercise of their functions, to have due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism.

Radicalisation is defined as “a grooming process or exploitation phase of recruitment to a particular cause or ideology”. This might include violent Islamist groups, nationalist groups and the far-right, INCELS (Involuntary Celebrates) and other causes.

At the heart of Prevent is safeguarding children and adults. It provides early intervention to protect, support and divert them away from being drawn into terrorist activity, rather than punishment or criminalisation.

As an education provider, Chesterfield College has a duty to promote British Values

Democracy - a culture built upon freedom and equality, where everyone is aware of their rights and responsibilities.

The Rule of Law - the need for rules to make a happy, safe and secure environment to live and work.

Individual Liberty - protection of your rights and the rights of others around you.

Mutual Respect and Tolerance of Different Faiths and Beliefs - the understanding that we don't all share the same beliefs and values. Respecting the values, ideals and beliefs of others, whilst not imposing our own onto them.

If you have any concerns please speak to a member of the Safeguarding Team.

Finding it difficult to manage how we think, feel, act with respect to daily stresses could be a sign of poor mental health. Mental illnesses are conditions that affect a person's thinking, feeling, mood or behaviour, such as depression, anxiety, bipolar disorder, or schizophrenia.

Depression - is a feeling of low mood that lasts for a long time and affects everyday life. It can make people feel hopeless, despairing, guilty, worthless, unmotivated and exhausted. It can affect self-esteem, sleep, appetite, sex drive and physical health. In its mildest form, depression doesn't stop people leading a normal life, but it makes everything harder to do and seem less worthwhile. At its most severe, depression can make a person feel suicidal, and be life-threatening.

Anxiety - is what we feel when we are worried, tense or afraid – particularly about things that are about to happen, or which we think could happen in the future. Occasional anxiety is a normal human experience, but if feelings of anxiety are very strong, or last for a long time, they can be overwhelming. People may also experience physical symptoms such as sleep problems and panic attacks.

Eating Disorders - are not just about food. They can be about difficult things and painful feelings which someone may be finding hard to face or resolve. Anyone, regardless of age, gender or weight, can be affected by eating problems. The most common eating disorder diagnoses are anorexia, bulimia, binge eating disorder, and other specified feeding or eating disorder.

Self-harm/self-injury - is when a person hurts themselves as a way of dealing with very difficult feelings, painful memories or overwhelming situations and experiences. This can be cutting, burning or bruising but may include other risk taking behaviour.

If you or someone you know are at immediate risk of harm please contact emergency services via 999.
