Welcome

The Wellbeing Team

Welcome to Chesterfield College. A warm welcome to new students, and a friendly welcome back to everyone returning.

We're proud to support you as you take your next steps in learning.

We know starting something new can feel a bit worrying, but we're here to help you feel safe, calm and ready to learn.

We want you to enjoy your time here, try new things and succeed in your own way.

College is a kind and supportive place where your voice matters.

Inspiring futures
changing lives

Bursary and Financial Support

A bursary is financial support provided to students to help them pay for things such as:

- Travel
- Uniform
- Kit/tools
- Materials
- Trips/residentials

For more information about Bursaries and how to apply, visit Student Services in C007. Or visit the bursary page on the college website.

College Enrichment Programmes

At Chesterfield College, your learning is only one part of your experience. The Empower programme gives you support with your future career and everyday skills, and encourages resilience.

Our Safeguarding team run regular Awareness Days on key topics. Visit our Safeguarding and Wellbeing page on our website www.chesterfield.ac.uk for updates, information and support.

Talk to your Personal Development Coach, check the Heartspace chalkboard or the TV screens around college to find out more about planned events and activities.

The Wellbeing Hub

The Wellbeing Hub is a calm and safe place in college where you can learn about support available to you both here and outside of college. It is on the ground floor of South Block, just before the lifts.

The Safeguarding Team are based in the Wellbeing Hub for safeguarding support; including advice, guidance, and signposting. The SEND Team is also based in the Wellbeing Hub for any queries regarding additional education support, adjustment permits and exam arrangements.

There is a quiet space if you need a calm environment.

More information and useful links for safeguarding and wellbeing can be found on the VLE in the Wellbeing Hub Online section.

Personal Development Coaches and Personal Tutors

Your Personal Development Coach and Personal Tutor, from your academic area, will support you to develop;

- Personal skills
- Social skills
- Academic and study skills
- Employability skills
- Physical health
- Mental health
- General wellbeing

You will meet your Personal Development Coach and Personal Tutor as part of the induction programme.

Your Personal Development Coach will support you to overcome any barriers related to your Learning, Engagement, Achievement and Progress.
