

Hairdressing

At Chesterfield College, we offer a wide range of hairdressing courses designed to develop practical skills, creativity and confidence. Whether you are just beginning your journey or looking to advance your existing skills, we provide training that reflects real industry standards.

Did you know?

Tutors have strong industry links, working closely with leading brands such as Wella to bring current knowledge, specialist training, and enrichment directly into the learning experience, ensuring students develop skills aligned with professional standards.

As a hairdressing student, you'll train in Lift, our professional, fully operational salon. Here, you will have the chance to practice and refine your skills, before progressing to styling real, paying clients in a commercial environment. Our expert tutors have extensive industry experience and will support and guide you every step of the way. By working in a real salon setting, you will develop the confidence, technique and client care skills needed to succeed in the hair industry.
