

Sports Massage

At Chesterfield College, we offer a range of Sports Massage qualifications designed to prepare learners for professional practice in the industry. Our courses provide hands-on training, expert guidance, and real client experience, helping students build the skills and confidence needed to deliver effective sports massage treatments.

Did you know?

The tutor enriches sports massage therapy through techniques such as dry cupping and collaborative work with sports students, giving learners valuable, real-world experience in supporting performance and recovery.

As a Sports Massage student, you'll train in our professional therapy clinic. You'll have the chance to develop your techniques with fellow students, as well as work with real clients in a commercial environment, helping you build confidence and experience for your future career. Our expert tutors have extensive experience in the sports therapy and rehabilitation industry. They'll support and guide you every step of the way, ensuring you graduate with the skills, knowledge needed to succeed.
